There are more and more YouTubers putting videos online. No matter what their videos are about, there is one thing in common: they all want to make it big. To most people's surprise, the biggest money maker in 2018 was a 7-year-old boy, Ryan. He made 22 million dollars.

He started his channel in 2015. In his video, he opened a new toy and explained how to play it. He played with all kinds of toys in his videos. He said that people like him because he can always make others laugh.

He made most of his money from pre-roll ads. Pre-rolls ads are the online advertisements before the start of videos. It sometimes takes people 5 to 30 seconds to see pre-roll ads. The more popular your channel is, the more money you'll get from pre-roll ads. Ryan's channel has 23.3 million followers. The number is still growing.

(three comments)

- ◎ Max: It's crazy for his parents to let him be a YouTuber. The price of being famous will shock them.

- ◎ Hans: It's not good for children when they spend too much time working as a Youtuber.
 ◎ Linda: Children have to practice showing themselves. What's the problem with that?

No matter what 無論如何 in common 共同

 comments 評論 shock 震驚 themselves 他們自己

29. What are pre-roll ads more likely for? more likely 較可能
 (A) To make people want to buy something.
 (B) To get more followers for the channel.
 (C) To show a list of the videos you can watch on YouTube.
 (D) To teach people how to be a successful Youtuber.
30. Which is true?
 (A) To Linda, it is not a good idea to be a YouTuber when he/she is too young.
 (B) People have the same comments for Ryan.
 (C) To Max, being a YouTuber can make a lot of money.
 (D) To Hans, Youtuber is not a good job for children.
31. What do we know about Ryan from the reading?
 (A) He invited (邀請) some fans to his house.
 (B) He began to make videos when he was four years old.
 (C) He thinks that he can make money by making people laugh.
 (D) His parents had him make videos when he was playing with toys.
